

IRTE in Egypt

On 9th 10th, Feb, 2005, under the auspices of Her Excellency Mrs. Suzanne Mubarak, the First Lady of Egypt, and the Ministry of Interior of the Arab Republic of Egypt, a pioneering 2-day international forum, Road Safety & Traffic Management 2005 was organised to coincide with the official Egyptian Police Festival 2005. The conference was attended by over 500 members from different stakeholders groups from Egypt as well as from across the world where IRTE was specially invited based on its successful programmes on road user education, especially for school children. The President IRTE was invited to chair the session as well as make the presentation on how the innovative schoolteacher's program of School Conclave could be adopted by other countries especially in the MENA Region.
