

'World Day for the Remembrance of Road Crash Victims'

On 19 November '2006 'World Day for the Remembrance of Road Crash Victims' IRTE is involving Youth (university students) from Indian mega cities. IRTE is bringing awareness to the University Students that they have a major role not only in keeping themselves safe but also to assist accident victims and their families in getting compensation and justice. A major event was organized in Delhi.

